

Beneficial insects in organic greenhouses and polytunnels

Workshop for growers

at Overton Community Centre, 5 High St, Overton, Basingstoke RG25 3HB and Mike Fisher's Northdown Orchard, Overton, RG25 3BP

Thursday 3rd October 2019

9.30 am – 3.30 pm

Agenda

- 9.30 Welcome, coffee and tea at the Overton Community Centre, RG25 3HB
- 10.00 Introductions, background and first outcomes of the project
(Anja Vieweger, The Organic Research Centre)
- 10.30 Updates and experiences from the project grower group
(Iain Tolhurst, Andy Dibben, Sue Johnson, Samantha Bourn, etc.)
- 11.30 Fostering predatory insects in organic greenhouses and polytunnels
(Pete Dollimore, formerly Hankham Organics, now The Montessori Place)
- 12.15 Fostering pollinators in organic greenhouses and polytunnels
(Barbara Smith, Coventry University)
- 13.00 Lunch and short drive to Northdown Orchard, RG25 3BP
- 14.00 Field visit at Northdown Orchard, including tour to experiment with flower strips etc.
(Mike Fisher, Northdown Orchard)
- 15.30 End of the event

Book your place by emailing anja.v@organicresearchcentre.com

More info about the DiverIMPACTS project and case study nr 24: www.diverimpacts.net