

Time	Workshop 1	Workshop 2	Workshop 3	Workshop 4	Workshop 5
Wednesday 22nd January 2014
11.00 – 13.00	Opening Plenary - Sustainable food systems – the challenges we need to address (Room 1 ground floor)
13.00 – 14.00	Lunch in the Restaurant (Ground Floor)
14:00 – 15.00 Workshops 1 – Round Table Discussions	soil quality and management / manure management and nutrient management / water quality and management / food security and productivity / food quality, safety and public health / energy and carbon / agricultural systems diversity / biodiversity / landscape and heritage / animal health and welfare / farm resilience and profitability / social capital and rural communities Restaurant area (ground floor)
15.00 – 15.30	Tea/Coffee break in the Lounge Area
15.30 – 17.00 Workshops 2	Growing Oats – fulfilling the potential Room 145 (first floor)	Building local/regionally adapted seed systems (organised by OGA) Room 1A (ground floor)	Liverfluke control Room 3 (ground floor)	Home-grown feed and forage – closing the system Room 1B (ground floor)	CAP reform – what’s in store? Room 1C (ground floor)
17.00 – 17.10	Comfort break
17.10 – 18.00 Small group Meetings	Future arable research priorities for organic growers Room 145 (first floor)	UK organic markets – trends and opportunities Room 1A (ground floor)	Participatory plant breeding with diverse wheat populations Room 3 (ground floor)	The organic principle of health in practice Room 1B (ground floor)	Community woodfuel: integrating energy production into farming systems and communities Room 1C (ground floor)
18:30 - 19:00	Bar / Workshop 1 flipchart session followed by Conference Dinner at 19.30 in the Restaurant
Thursday 23rd January 2014
09.00 – 10.30 Workshops 3	Reducing the productivity gap in organic farming – balancing nutrients supply and demand Room 145 (first floor)	Making our growing systems truly local Room 1A (ground floor)	Organic beef and lamb markets: opportunities and bottlenecks Room 3 (ground floor)	Maintaining productivity from grassland in the long-term Room 1B (ground floor)	Addressing the skills gap: information/innovation opportunities Room 1C (ground floor)
10.30 – 11.00	Tea/coffee break in the Lounge area (Ground Floor)
11:00 - 12:30 Workshops 4	Reducing the productivity gap in crop production – weed management – adapting the Danish experience and expertise to the UK context Room 145 (first floor)	Innovative local marketing – beyond posh nosh Room 1A (ground floor)	Reducing antibiotic use for sustainable agriculture Room 3 (ground floor)	Soft rush control in grassland Room 1B (ground floor)	Agroforestry – a question of scale – from forest gardens to landscape scale agroforestry Room 1C (ground floor)
12.30 – 13.30	Lunch in the Restaurant (Ground Floor)
13.30 – 15.00	Closing Plenary: Making sustainability happen! Room 1 (ground floor)
15.00 – 15.30	Tea/coffee in Lounge area and Close of Main Conference				